

Privacy Confidentiality and Data Security

Chapter Title

Indication of coverage

Table of Contents*

Consolidated Index

Consolidated index will be published both online and in hardcopy. Online version will include links to numbered paragraph level online.

Tables: Tables of cases and statutes

Tables of cases will be printed in hardcopy and appear online as PDFs .

Chapter 1: Background and overview of law in Australia

- Outline and overview of regulatory framework
- Interrelationship of state/commonwealth/international law/common law
- Future Developments

Chapter 2: Key Principles and Concepts in Privacy, Confidentiality and Data Security

Introduction to key principles and concepts

Chapter 3: How the law applies

Chapter 3.1: Investigations

- Investigation process
- Commissioner's powers and approach
- Acting for a complainant
- Acting for a respondent
- Negotiating a settlement
- Enforcement

Chapter 3.2: Complaints

- Lodging a complaint to commissioner
- Complaint to code adjudicator
- Injunctive relief

Chapter 3.3: Regulation of specific information and activities

- Credit Reporting
 - Tax File Numbers
 - Data-matching
-

Chapter 3.4: Approved Privacy Codes

- Emergencies and disasters
 - Public sector
 - Contractors
 - Obligations of confidence
 - Data matching
-

Chapter 3.5: Private sector - data management, confidentiality and compliance policies

- Small Businesses Opting-In
- Government contractors
- Practical issues
- Privacy audits
- Privacy policies
- Privacy collection notices
- Privacy consent forms
- Privacy impact assessments
- Complaint handling procedures
- Contractors and agents
- Consent – definition, general law, withdrawal, third parties and children
- Young people – rights, determining competence and collecting from children
- Job applicants and recruitment
- E-commerce and the Internet
- Data breaches – response measures
- Portable storage devices
- Discovery of documents in legal proceedings
- Genetic information
- Changes in business circumstances
- Sale of business
- Customer profiling

Chapter 3.6: Industry specific FAQs

- Health services
- Superannuation
- Financial services
- Insurance
- Direct marketing
- Education
- Miscellaneous
- Public sector
- Collections to and disclosures from other agencies
- Public registers
- Disclosures to State agencies
- Disclosures regarding APS Code of
- Conduct matters
- Disclosures for medical research
- Handling unsolicited information

Chapter 3.7: Health records legislation

- Obtaining Health Information (legislative requirements in each jurisdiction)
- Right to access information (legislative requirements in each jurisdiction)
- Complaints (legislative requirements in each jurisdiction)
- Retention of information (legislative requirements in each jurisdiction)
- Securing information (requirements in each jurisdiction)
- Electronic Health Records
- Genetic information
- Capacity
- Future developments

Chapter 3.8: Laws of confidence

- Breach of confidence
- Spent convictions
- Human rights legislation
- Direct marketing laws
- Employment law and employee privacy
- Listening and surveillance devices
- Monitoring workplace computers, emails and internet.
Monitoring staff use of telephones
- Workplace video surveillance
- Biometric access controls and logs
- Drug and alcohol testing
- DNA testing

Key Legislation and National Privacy Principles

*Table of Contents are subject to change. Current as at 20 May 2011.